1. In view of the Information Disclosure Statement filed on 6/1603, Prosecution is hereby reopened.
2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

3. Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Agre et al (Pat.

No. 6,208,857) or Hunzinger et al (WO 01/50788) or Palicot et al (FR 2 802 379).

Agre et al teach an apparatus, method, and computer-readable storage medium including a positioning mechanism to determine a position of the apparatus, a baseband module including a plurality of network interfaces each supporting a network communications protocol, a determining mechanism to determine which communications networks are operative at the position, a selection mechanism to select one of the operative communications networks, and a connection mechanism to seamlessly connect the apparatus to the selected communications network using one of the network interfaces. See col 2, line 16-col 3, line 23; col 4, line 62-col 5, line 33; col 8, line 50- col 9, line 18.
